4. To assist the President in acting as a mediator between members or non-member affiliated persons of this organization when necessary.
5. To begin the weekly meetings on time as set forth in Article I “Meetings” of the By-Laws.

Section 7: If any member of the Executive Committee is temporarily or permanently removed from their position by any means, the succession of their position shall fall to the next officer in the order of hierarchy. This shall remain until the next meeting called by the President, in which a candidate for replacement shall be chosen from the pool of members present and will be voted upon by all attendees, not limited to members.

Section 8: Temporary Officer Positions

Duties shall be set forth by the Executive Committee and agreed upon by a quorum.

Temporary officer positions shall be instated by the Executive Committee at its discretion and must be accepted by the recipient to take effect. Upon acceptance, the recipient shall perform to the best of their ability the duties of the position agreed upon by the recipient and the executive committee.

Temporary officer positions may be removed by the Executive Committee at any time deemed necessary. Temporary officers will lose their position when the recipient is no longer listed on the roster, and if a replacement is not decided upon, the position will be removed.

Section 9: Mascot

Any person, place, thing, or idea may be the Mascot. Nominations for Mascot will be held at the time of elections. If the Mascot is deemed a threat to the organization as a whole or its members, the Mascot will be impeached according to Section 3 of Article II “Suspension of Active Members” of the By-Laws even if the Mascot is not a member.

Article VI

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- Section 1: The Executive Committee shall be composed of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Sergeant at Arms.
- Section 2: The duties of the Executive Committee is to organize the agenda for meetings, to coordinate activities, and fulfill other duties as set forth in the constitution.

Article VII

ADVISOR

- Section 1: The Advisor shall be selected by a majority vote of a quorum.
- Section 2: The Advisor to The Order of Saint George will provide counsel to the Executive Committee with regard to all activities.
- Section 3: The Advisor shall assume the duties of the Alumni Representative in the event of his absence even if the Advisor is not an alumnus of this organization.

Article VIII

ALUMNI REPRESENTATIVE

- Section 1: The Alumni Representative shall be selected by a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee and must be an alumnus of this organization.
- Section 2: The Alumni Representative to The Order of Saint George shall act as a historian to the organization and shall be responsible for carrying out any events surrounding the history of The Order of Saint George.

Article IX

AMENDMENTS

- Section 1: To amend the constitution, a two-thirds majority must be present and a two-thirds majority of those present must agree on the proposed amendment.
- Section 2: For the purposes of making amendments to this constitution, all members present shall be asked to vote. The votes may be for, against, or undecided toward proposed amendments. After all members present have voted, all votes of those who voted undecided will be counted as those of the greater volume of the other two choices, for or against.

Section 3: A quorum shall consist of 51% of the active membership.

Article X

IMPEACHMENT AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Section 1: Any officer in the organization may be removed from office for offenses including, but not necessarily limited to, gross neglect of duty, misuse of official position, or failure to abide by the Grove City College Standards of Conduct as defined in The Crimson.

Section 2: In the event that a member has charges to bring against an officer, the organization shall follow the impeachment process described in Section 3 of Article X, below, to determine whether the officer is guilty of the charges. The matter shall be resolved internally between the Executive Committee and the Advisor. Upon a three-quarter majority vote of the officers not being charged, the officer in question shall be removed from the organization.

Section 3: The impeachment process contains four distinct steps: declaration of charges, review of charges, executive hearing, and vote of no confidence. In addition, no attorneys shall be present during any of the impeachment proceedings stated below.

Declaration of Charges

The member of the organization who has a charge to bring against an officer and therefore wishes to initiate the impeachment process shall make his intentions known to the person charged before submitting in writing a charge to the President, or if he is the one being charged, to the Vice President. The officer receiving the charge shall acknowledge receipt in writing. The Advisor shall be notified and shall function in an advisory capacity to the President (or Vice President, if applicable).

Officer Review of Charges

The President (or Vice President, if applicable) and the member bringing forth the charge shall then speak to the charged officer. If this officer refuses to step down from his position and the problem is not resolved at this stage, the process shall move on to the hearing of charges. The President (or Vice President, if applicable) shall have the authority to dismiss charges if he thinks they are not legitimate.

Executive Hearing

The President (or Vice President, if applicable) shall then call a meeting of the Executive Committee to hear and review the matter. The Executive Hearing shall be held no sooner than one week and no later than three weeks after the charge has been made. The member bringing the charge against the officer shall be invited to present his case to this group, and the officer being charged shall be invited to respond to the charges.

Vote of No Confidence

Upon conclusion of the hearing, the officers not being charged shall review the matter and vote as to whether removal from position occurs; a three-quarter majority of these officers is required to remove the accused from office. If this majority is not reached, or if the officers are able to resolve the matter at this hearing, the impeachment process shall be considered “resolved” and shall conclude at this step. If any officer is to be relieved of his position, elections shall be held as soon as possible to fill the vacancy according to Section 7 of Article V “Officers”.
